Darth Vader: We landed, where is it?

Randy: It is Earth

Randy: Homeland of my people

Randy: Beautiful scent of nature

Darth Vader: It will be a good colony

- Next Day -

Randy: You can see different lifeforms

Randy: grass, tree, flower, insect, fungus

Randy: different animals

Darth Vader: I hate nature, all useless crap

Darth Vader: messy, not clean

Randy: What??

Randy: That is called biodiversity

Randy: true wealth

- Later -

Darth Vader: Why you bring me here

Randy: I want to teach you

Randy: Biodiversity is richest in the tropics

Darth Vader: Who cares

Randy: Many intelligent people care

Randy: Tropical forest has 10% earth surface

Randy: but has 90% of the Earth's species

Darth Vader: So? Not as cool as my cars

Darth Vader: I like COOL things, not tropics

Randy: Is that why you are cold hearted and stupid

Randy: Where do you get the cars?

Darth Vader: I bought them, with money, I am rich

Randy: No, look deeper

Randy: Factories made them by biodiversity

Randy: The workers live on biodiversity

Randy: Biodiversity is food, cloth, medicine...

Darth Vader: I only need to eat meat

Randy: That's why you are obese and rude

Randy: Healthy diet should be plant based

Randy: and have diversity

Randy: 80% food for industrialized humans are from rainforests

Randy: Animal agriculture damages biodiversity

Randy: Have some coconuts

- Later -

Darth Vader: You can't change me Randy

Darth Vader: I am happy about how I do things

Darth Vader: The mess of biodiversity on Earth has to go

Darth Vader: Bio cleanser

Randy: Nooooooooooooooooooooo

Darth Vader: We will start from cutting tree tomorrow

- Later -

Randy Darth Vader wants to destroy biodiversity

Randy: I need help

Lora: That's horrible, need to stop him

Randy: Yeah, he want to cut down trees first

Cream: What an idiot, he will kill everyone including himself

Brocli: get his tools, he can't do it on his own

Randy: Good ideas, can any of you draw his attention for half an hour? I can fetch his tool then

Lita: I can do that, I will go steal his sausage in the breakfast

- Next Day -

Darth Vader: A damn cat stolen my sausage

Darth Vader: I had to go chase him

Darth Vader: waste me half an hour

Randy: I see

Darth Vader: Now I can't find my tools

Randy: That's great

Darth Vader: Why is great? Did you take it?

Randy: Life on Earth is an interdependent web

Randy: Trees are foundations

Randy: You should not cut them

Randy: Biodiversity is insurance and indicator

Randy: for the eco health

Darth Vader: So you took it?

Darth Vader: Well you love biodiversity so much

Darth Vader: I will just bomb them all

Darth Vader: No one can stop me

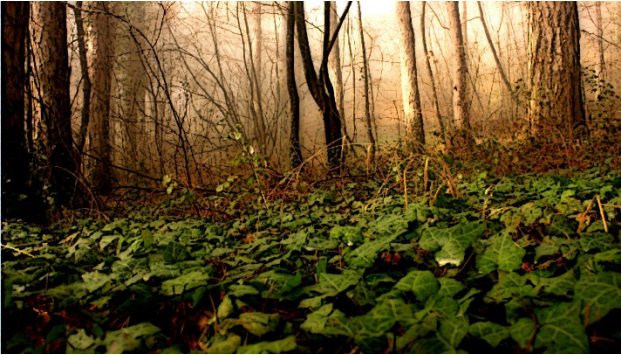

Darth Vader: I have atom bombs for your planet

Darth Vader: . . .

(bomb explodes)

Darth Vader: I am the king of Earth

Darth Vader: Ha-ha-ha-

- Later -

Randy: I told you

Randy: The planet will end up like this

Randy: lifeless. And no fuel left in our spaceship

Darth Vader: Oh no, I am hungry and thirsty

Randy: What can you buy with your money now?
